Hi Megan – Jennie will provide you with a copy of the safety plan and will require your signature (and Donovan's). Unannounced visits will be completely unannounced – no heads up. Jennie will review every safety plan provider's role when she goes over the plan with you (it's not drafted yet); you will have a copy of this plan as well.

The purpose of the safety checks will be meeting with the girls alone/separately from you and Donovan; it will include ensuring the home remains clean (enough) to not be a safety hazard, as well as ensuring sobriety, that there is no domestic violence occurring in the home, and that conversations with the girls are going well and do not include anything that would be deemed as inappropriate for their ears (i.e. case status, discussing Della, etc.).

Jennie and I will be meeting with safety service providers Erick Becerra and Elizabeth Myers on Friday to discuss the safety plan and what their jobs will be (what I outlined above). Jennie will draft the plan following that meeting or early next week.

Thank you,

Kasey Pomerleau

Thank you for the update regarding the in-home safety plan for the girls. I have a few questions and clarifications to ensure everything is in place for their return:

*Daily Safety Service Providers: Could you please provide more details about the specific roles and responsibilities of the safety service providers who will be visiting daily?

*Neighbor's Role: We appreciate Barbara's involvement. Could you clarify her specific responsibilities during her visits on Sundays?

*Agency Access: We understand the need for agency access to all areas of our home. Could you specify the procedures for unannounced visits and how we will be notified?

*Safety Plan Documentation: Will there be any written documentation outlining the in-home safety plan, including expectations, protocols, and contact information for the involved parties?

We are committed to ensuring the girls' safety and well-being and want to make sure we comply fully with all requirements. Please let us know if there's anything specific we need to prepare before 07/23.

Thank you for your cooperation and support this is absolutely amazing news and we are very excited to have the girls home

Hi folks,

My supervisor and I have consulted, and we will plan for the girls coming home on an in-home safety plan as of 07/23. We will need safety service providers coming into the home daily to talk with the girls. Barbara, the next-door neighbor will need to talk to the girls on Sundays. The Agency will need access to all areas of your home, 24/7.

Let me know what questions you have.

Thank you,
