Narrative

I asked [REDACTED] what had happened and [REDACTED] advised the following information: [REDACTED] stated [REDACTED] returned to [REDACTED] residence, at 6550 Pyramid Highway Unit #37, where [REDACTED] lives with [REDACTED] boyfriend, identified as Donovan Clark. [REDACTED] returned with [REDACTED] two [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] friend [REDACTED]. They attempted to get into the residence, but noticed the locks had been changed. They were able to break into the home and [REDACTED] found Clark standing in the back bedroom. [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was in the rear bedroom, so [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and the two [REDACTED] exited the residence. [REDACTED] and the two [REDACTED] got into [REDACTED] vehicle, while [REDACTED] stood on the front porch.

[REDACTED] said Clark had exited the residence, from the rear door and walked to the front of the residence. He spoke to [REDACTED] and told [REDACTED] "You will get yours" and he left in an orange vehicle, which had no license plates affixed to the vehicle (no further description). [REDACTED] stated [REDACTED] called the police and waited on the front porch. [REDACTED] also stated [REDACTED] friend [REDACTED] took the [REDACTED] to [REDACTED] house, so they would not be involved in the situation. [REDACTED] was unable to tell us what he meant, when he said, "you will get yours."

While [REDACTED] was waiting on the front porch, for two hours, [REDACTED] stated the front door was slammed open and Clark walked out the door. As he walked out the door, [REDACTED] said he had kicked the cat out the door and had a knife, with a one to two inch blade showing. The knife was in his right hand and next to his waist. [REDACTED] said Clark was upset and told [REDACTED] the following: "Your next, you will get yours" and then he immediately entered the house and pushed over a shelf and ran out the back door of the house and left the area.

[REDACTED] said he only had the knife in his hand, by his waist. [REDACTED] did not tell me he was waving the knife, or insinuating he was going to use the knife on [REDACTED] McCafferty was approximately fifteen to twenty feet away from Clark when he came out of the front door. [REDACTED] said he did not advance upon [REDACTED] he just came out the door, made the statement and went back inside the house and left out the back door.

Deputy Littlefield checked with [REDACTED] neighbors who lived in spaces #36 and #38 and neither of the neighbors had heard anything during the time of the altercation.

I spoke to [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] said they had arrived at the trailer park at 1500 hours and dropped off the Temporary Protection Order at the front office of the park. [REDACTED] was able to have the TPO issued on 10/03/2016, although the TPO had not been served as of the writing of this report. At 1515 hours, they went to [REDACTED] residence at space #37, they broke into the home, as the locks had been changed. They looked around the home and [REDACTED] found Clark in the back bedroom. [REDACTED] came out and told [REDACTED] Clark was in the bedroom. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and the two [REDACTED] left the house. [REDACTED] stood on the front porch and [REDACTED] and the kids sat in [REDACTED] vehicle in the front driveway. [REDACTED] said Clark came out the back door of the house and told [REDACTED] "You will get yours, I'm not leaving without my [REDACTED] and I'm calling the police for your breaking and entering." [REDACTED] said he then left the residence.

[REDACTED] said Clark was upset, but did not state he was acting out of control during the time [REDACTED] had seen him today.

This case is being taken as an informational report.
