IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF WASHOE

DONOVAN CLARK,

Plaintiff,

vs.

CASE NO. DV25-01799

DEPT NO. 2

MEGAN MCCAFFERTY,

Defendant.

ORDER AFTER CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE; ORDER CONTINUING

The parties appeared before the Court via simultaneous audio-visual equipment (Zoom) for a Case Management Conference on February 20, 2026.¹ Plaintiff, Donovan Clark, (“Husband”) appears in this action, representing himself. Defendant, Megan McCafferty, (“Wife”), appears in this action, representing herself. The Court and all participants appeared via simultaneous audiovisual transmission (Zoom). Judge Grossman was physically located in Reno, Washoe County, Nevada, which was the site of the Court session. Counsel/Parties acknowledged receipt of Notice that the hearing was taking place pursuant to Nevada Supreme Court Rules- Part 9 relating to simultaneous audiovisual transmissions and all counsel/parties stated they had no objection to going forward in this matter.

The Court attempted to utilize Zoom (simultaneous audio visual transmission) for the hearing however the parties, (primarily Donovan Clark) were unable or unwilling to comport themselves in a manner allowing the Court to conduct the hearing. The parties

1 spoke over each other and the Court, and Donovan Clark failed to comply with repeated
2 admonishments from the Court leaving the Court unable to hear answers to questions
3 asked and unable to move through the issues in any effective manner or make orders
4 without interruption. Based upon such conduct, the Court concluded the hearing by Zoom
5 and directed the parties to appear before the Court for proceedings IN PERSON.

6 The parties shall appear for a continued case management conference on
